PREVIOUS COURT ACTION

On May 26, 2005, the defendant's conditions of probation were modified ordering that the $1,000 fine be paid at a rate of no less than $100 per month.

PETITIONING THE COURT

[X] To issue a warrant [ ] To issue a summons

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Mandatory Condition No.2 : "The defendant shall not possess a controlled substance. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance."

Nature of Non-compliance: On July 3 and 30, 2007; and August 10 and 31, 2007, the defendant submitted to drug tests which resulted in positive results for marijuana.

U.S. Probation Officer Action: On July 12, 2007, the defendant reported and admitted to marijuana use. On July 23, 2007, Williams met with SUSPO Peralta to discuss his noncompliance. He was advised that due to his positive drug tests, the probation office would recommend that he return to the substance abuse caseload. Williams informed SUSPO Peralta, he did not want to participate in substance abuse classes and would rather take his chances with the judge. He was given the opportunity to talk to his family and return on July 30, 2007, with a decision as to whether he wanted to participate in substance abuse treatment or appear before the judge. Williams reported as instructed and during the collection of his specimen for a drug test, he admitted to the use of marijuana on July 27, 2007, and that he wanted to appear in front of the judge to address his noncompliance. In addition, he continued to be drug tested and he tested positive for marijuana on August 10 and 31, 2007. He again admitted to the use of marijuana on or about August 3rd.

Violation Standard Condition No.3 : "The defendant shall answer truthfully all inquires by the Probation Officer and follow the instructions of the Probation Officer."

Nature of Non-compliance: The defendant failed to report as instructed on August 3, 6, 13, 17, 20 and 24, 2007; and September 7 and 9, 2007.

U.S. Probation Officer Action: Due to the defendant's noncompliance, he was instructed to report and submit to a drug test every Monday and Friday. He was instructed on July 30, 2007, during his office visit, to continue to report on every Monday and Friday until his noncompliance was addressed.
